

Richfield Springs

Community Center

Summer 2011

The Fish Were Jumping at The Mill Pond Classic!!!

June 25th the annual Mill Pond Classic was held in Van Hornesville. No fishing licenses were required for the day and despite the rainy weather, the turn out was great! 61 kids aged 12 and under registered at the event and many parents and older siblings participated in the fishing as well.

Prizes were awarded to the two biggest fish in both age categories every hour. For first place, rod and reel combos were awarded to: Ben Shephard, Anna Engel, Kaylee Barrett, Hunter Eckler, Bella Valenta, and Hanna Roos. The second place winners were Zach Peplinski, Hunter Eckler, Dakota Shephard (twice), and Ryan Miller who received books on fishing and/or fishing accessories. Over 125 fish were brought up for measurement.

The largest trout of the day was 16" it was caught by Hanna Roos in the 11 -12 age group.

Bella Valenta caught the biggest fish in the 10 years old and younger category, her fish was measured at 13.5 inches!

Special thanks to Joe Kosina (Four Seasons Sports) for donating the bait and his time for the event, the Van Hornesville Fish Hatchery for donating the fish to stock the Mill Pond and for the free public access of the Van Hornesville Community Center!

Congratulations to all of the anglers!

Upcoming Fall Events:

- > Community Nights (Saturday's)
- > Kindergarten — 4th Grade After School Programs
- > 5th-8th Grade After School Programs
- > Fall "Fun Run"
- > "Hometown Secrets" Cooking Classes

Changes on the Horizon!!!

To better serve the whole community EVERYONE -regardless of age - is invited to play and enjoy the facility on "Community Nights" beginning on August 20, 2011. "Community Nights" are every Saturday from 7:00 - 10:00pm. Anyone below 7th grade must be accompanied by an adult. We hope to see lots of you there for pool, air hockey, cards, foosball, shuffleboard, and a great time!

Richfield Springs Community Center Welcomes NEW Director

Sascha Kollisch has recently joined the Richfield Springs Community Center as the new Director and is excited to work with the After School Program, The Zone Youth Program and the growing community center.

Originally from New Jersey, Sascha lived in Germany and Austria for 10 years before finally moving to upstate NY. Upon graduating from Cooperstown Central School, Sascha returned to Germany to horseback ride with an Olympic dressage rider for a year. She continues to ride and teach dressage at Thistle Hill Farm in Cherry Valley, NY. Sascha also enjoys snowshoeing, painting and fishing.

Sascha is a New York State Certified Art Teacher with an undergraduate degree from Hartwick College in Art, and a Master's degree in Art Education from Syracuse University. Although her focus has primarily been in Art Education, she is dedicated to youth development and community engagement. She is looking forward to working with and hearing from the community to develop new programs and community service projects to best utilize the Richfield Springs Community Center which strives to serve and deliver programs that enrich the lives of the citizens of our community.

Sascha is anticipating meeting you at the upcoming, informational meeting about The Zone for new 7th grade students and parents (July 8th at 6:00 pm), The Summer Teen Reading Program (starting July 12th) and the RSCS Pride Days (August 12, 13, and 14).

Sascha Kollisch recently joined the RSCC as new director.

She will be working at the RSCC Tuesday through Saturday and is eager to meet and work with the members of our community.

Summer 2011

RSCC
PO Box 150
Richfield Springs, NY 13439
315-858-3200

Summer Reading Program: "You Are Here"

The first session of The Teen Summer Reading Program was held at the Richfield Springs Community Center on July 12th. Amy Wyant was the guest speaker for the evening and taught the youth about blogging, internet safety, and how to use imovie on the imacs that were generously donated to the Richfield Springs Community Center by the RSCS. The program was designed by Laura Twomey and Pam Dilleberto with support from the PTO and Richfield Spring Library.

8/9 Career Fair. Participation is FREE! We hope to see lots of teens there!

Bailey Waid won a Journal!!!

Join the Summer Reading Program every Tuesday from 6:30-8:30 pm at the Richfield Springs Community Center. Tuesday (7/19/11) we will be hosting an International Food and Music Night. The teens will listen to music, look at pictures, and eat exciting food from Peru, Germany, India, Australia, Poland, and many more! Upcoming Summer Reading events are: 7/26 Geocaching, 8/2 The Night Sky,

Don't forget to visit our website at: <http://www.richfieldzone.org/> And "Like" our facebook pages to see more pictures and to get regular updates for "The Zone Youth Program" and "The Richfield Springs Community Center"

Kelly Winslow, Megan Winslow, Jennifer Hammer and Sascha Kollisch volunteered for the United Way at The Frankfort Marina!

Get FIT at the Richfield Springs Community Center!

Now is the time to get healthy and exercise! The Richfield Springs community Center is now offering Yoga Glow and Zumba fitness classes!

Get energized on Monday evenings at Zumba Fitness with Hollie Raux! She is a licensed and experienced full-time ZIN Zumba instructor. She loves Zumba Fitness for its energy, the fun and the music! Come sweat out your work week stress, get away for FUN personal time and lose weight in the process! It's so much like a dance party that it doesn't even feel like you're working out! Come dance to hot Latin and international rhythms and love every second of it! Her classes are starting on July 18th from 7:15pm - 8:15pm. The cost is $7.00 per class, BUT if you bring a friend it only costs $5.00 for each of you!

Lisa Mang has been teaching Yoga at the Community Center Wednesday evenings. She is switching things up this summer and will be offering a four week session of "Yoga Glow". Yoga Glow will focus on body and self awareness through yoga poses, stretching and breathing. This class is offered Wednesday's from July 20-August 10 at 6:30pm; class length will vary from 1 to 1.5 hours and costs $5.00 per session. Both beginners and experienced yoga enthusiasts are encouraged to join this class. Although it is recommended, participants are not required to attend all four weeks of Yoga Glow. Regular Yoga classes will resume this Fall.

We hope to see you at Zumba and Yoga Glow this summer at the Richfield Springs Community Center. If you are interested in teaching a class, have an idea, or would like additional fitness classes offered at the RSCC please contact Sascha at: 315-858-3200 or by email: Sascha@richfieldzone.org.

